A Note from Charlie Chawke, Proprietor

Since 1982, The Goat Bar & Grill has been a landmark destination in Goatstown, evolving into one of South Dublin's most cherished pubs. With its warm atmosphere, exceptional hospitality, and deep-rooted sporting tradition, The Goat has been at the heart of the local community for over 40 years. Known for decades as "Dublin's Sporting Pub", The Goat was one of the first, venues in the city to screen live sporting events for its patrons. While those old grainy projector screens have long been replaced with state-of-the-art HD displays and surround sound, the energy, passion and camaraderie on match days remain just as electric as ever. Whether it's the 6 Nations Rugby, the Premier League, GAA, or the Cheltenham Festival, there is nowhere quite like The Goat to experience the thrill of the game.

But The Goat is about more than just sport. Over the years, it has become equally renowned for its outstanding food, warm hospitality, and inviting atmosphere. With a carefully curated menu, from hearty breakfasts to family-friendly lunches and delicious evening meals, we take pride in offering great food, great service, and a great welcome to all who walk through our doors.

We've continued to invest in and improve The Goat, with our fully covered and heated beer garden now providing a superb space for outdoor dining and events all year round. Whether you're here for a casual pint, a family meal, a lively match day, or a special occasion, we hope you enjoy your time with us as much as we enjoy welcoming you.

Thank you for making The Goat part of your story.
